 - People providing administrative and financial services to the School;
 - Anyone you authorise the school to disclose information to; and
 - Anyone to whom the school is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.
6. Personal information collected from pupils is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.
7. The school may use online or 'Cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the school that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside of Australia. Further information about the schools use of online or 'Cloud' service providers is contained in the schools privacy policy.

8. The schools privacy policy, accessible on the Schools website sets out how parents or pupils may seek access to and correction of their personal information which the School has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of Schools duty of care to the pupil, or where pupils have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.
9. The Schools Privacy Policy also sets out how parents and pupils can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.
10. The School may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. [It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the School's fundraising activities solely for that purpose.] We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
11. On Occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, pupil activities and similar news is published in School newsletters and magazines, on our intranet[and on our website]. This may include photographs and videos of pupil activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions.
